From the Office of the President

It has been almost one full month since we completed our 3rd Annual DC Cigar Tweet-Up, and I am still in awe of what you have helped us to accomplish. On the strength of gracious manufacturers and retail partners, as well as, dedicated cigar enthusiasts, we were able to not only sell out of our VIP packages in less than two weeks, but also raise over $5,000 for the American Diabetes Association. I would like to take this time to thank my planning team of Cirilo McLaine & Lawrence Miltenberger!!!! If not for them and their diligent efforts every year, this event would not be a success. I also want to thank Paul Ballard, the other "B" in B&B, and the rest of The B&B Cigar Club for showing your support for an unforgettable event. Lastly, I have to thank our retail partners (Aphelion, Tobacco Leaf, W. Curtis Draper's Bethesda, & Chesapeake Cigar Co.), manufacturers, and cigar enthusiasts for all of your support. Without the support from you, this event would not be the growing success that it has year after year. I hope everyone that had a chance to participate in the event enjoyed the stops at each shop, the ride on the bus crawl, and the shenanigans of Suite 300. We are always looking for bigger and better ways to continue to bring this event to you, and we hope to see you again next year.

From the Office of the Vice President

With only 3 years of having this event, it has grown faster than I expected. Thanks to the man with the vision and the plan, "DaByrdman". With so many people to give thanks to, from the Cigar Manufactures, Sales Representatives & Retail Shops for allowing us to take over their stores. The Manufactures of Cigar Accessories, The bus driver that had to put up with tight streets, loud music and LOTS OF SMOKE. We would like to thank "The Chef" that supplied us with great food for the day during our bus crawl. To all the people that came from all over the country to be part of our event. It's good to be able to meet the people that you socialize with over social media including having the opportunity to make new friends. To the B&B Cigar Club Crew, thank you for your support!! We would also like to thank ALL of those people that supported & participated in any way possible to make this years DC Cigar Tweet Up a GREAT Success. For everyone that missed it this year, we hope to see you in 2015, "Get On The Bus"

*When you come out to the DC Cigar Tweet Up, Be ready to get it in. Great company + Great Cigars = A Great Time!!!!- Paul Ballard (the other B)
